On Site Shredding News

Summer 2010

On Site Shredding becomes a member of The Shredding Alliance Limited

The Shredding Alliance (TSA) has been created to provide on and off site confidential shredding and re-cycling services to customers throughout the United Kingdom.

TSA is comprised of many of the UK's leading independently owned shredding companies that meet strict qualifying criteria* to achieve approval for membership. These members have in excess of 100 years' experience of delivering confidential shredding and recycling services.

On Site Shredding meets these requirements and are now proud members of TSA.

If you require any information about The Shredding Alliance services please call us on 0800 071 4000.
